

ARTERIORS®
UPHOLSTERY COLLECTION

ur foray into upholstery has been a true passion project of mine. Since our launch in October, I've seen firsthand how our pieces elevate a variety of spaces and enhance interior projects. The attention to detail, scale and comfort set this unique assortment apart.

This spring, we introduced four new designs to further round out the collection. Turner, a dramatic, sexy curve of a sofa, large enough to take center stage in any space. Marley, a smaller, transitional tufted settee. McCartney, our first all feather and down filled sofa and Santana, a midcentury-inspired bench with beautiful wood detailing.

But the biggest news is that we are now offering you a new way to buy upholstery. By late summer, our entire collection will be stocked in muslin, available in both wood finishes. Muslin pieces will ship in 72 hours, allowing you to create a bespoke style at your trusted local workroom quickly and confidently. No more waiting for a COM order from the factory with fingers crossed that it arrives as expected.

For a more turnkey option, we will continue to stock select styles in the most popular fabrics that will also ship in 72 hours. If you're looking for something a little different, you will still be able to special order pieces in one of 13 fabrics.

Once again, thank you for the continued support. I can't wait for you to see what we are working on for the fall collection!
