TRADITION

For more than 30 years, discerning customers have known our brands to be synonymous with a commitment to transcend the boundaries of innovation and style while offering artful lighting and décor products.

Size can influence the impact you want to create. Smaller mirrors can act as accents, catching light here, reflecting an interesting object there. If you want your mirror to be a focal point in your room, make sure it is large enough to stand out, but also choose a frame that makes it even more noticeable.

The grouping of wall mirrors creates an artistic vignette, especially when the pieces are thoughtfully arranged. Place mirrors in similar shape, size and color together in odd numbers for maximum impact. Groups of three or five work particularly well and are stronger visually than a group of two or four.

many mirrors are a great decorative element.
 Go for a treatment that adds a little gold for warmth, or one with a lot of texture for more visual interest.

A bold and gorgeous mirror can be the focal point of a room. The mirror itself becomes the artwork. The frame of the mirror doesn't have to match the other finished pieces in the room, but keep it in the general color family.

OVERSIZED MIRRORS

INSTALLING AN OVERSIZED MIRROR ON THE WALL OR PLACING IT ON THE FLOOR LEANING AGAINST A WALL WILL NOT ONLY ADD EXTRA LIGHT, SPARKLE AND MAKE A SMALL ROOM APPEAR LARGER, BUT IT WILL PROVIDE A VERY DRAMATIC IMPACT IN THE SPACE.

WHEN A MIRROR IS EXTRA LARGE, PROPPING IT AGAINST THE WALL CAN BE EVERY BIT AS STYLISH AS HANGING IT. A CASUAL YET POWERFUL EFFECT IS THE RESULT. A LONG HORIZONTAL MIRROR CAN MAKE AS MUCH OF AN IMPACT AS A LARGE VERTICAL PIECE.

WE HAVE AN ABUNDANT SELECTION OF MIRRORS THAT ARE MORE THAN 4 FEET TALL AND SOME THAT ARE OVER 7 FEET TO HELP YOU CREATE THAT VISUAL IMPACT IN YOUR SPACE.

Consider size when choosing a floor mirror. The size should relate to the scale of other items in the room. If you have simple and dainty furniture, choose a floor mirror with a light frame. If you have a large room, a huge floor mirror can be a good statement piece.

“The size of your mirror will typically be dictated by the size (length) of your vanity counter top. A good rule of thumb is keep it at least 2 inches smaller in length than the vanity, and in most bathrooms could be more like 4 inches. The height should be no taller than your vanity and placed at least 4 to 6 inches from the ceiling.

“Scale is an important element to consider when choosing a bathroom mirror. Two mirrors or one? A single mirror for a vanity up to 30" will suffice, while a double vanity can display a single or double mirror. Two mirrors can sometimes lighten the space, while one large mirror can sometimes be heavy. The size of the room will help to determine one or two.
